1 (Proceedings commence at 10:45 a.m.)

2 THE CLERK: The Court calls the following for
3 guilty pleas: 1:18-CR-169, The United States of America
4 vs. Luis Guevara-Gonzalez.

5 MR. SPARKS: Grant Sparks for the United States,
6 your Honor.

7 MR. TOLAND: Steve Toland for Mr.
8 Guevara-Gonzalez, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Let's stop right there before you
10 call the other cases.

11 So I just had a conversation, Mr. Guevara, with 12 the attorneys. There's a motion that your attorney filed
13 yesterday, I believe it was.

14 MR. TOLAND: Yes, Judge.

15 So we just spoke to Judge Yeakel, we've been in 16 conference with the government, about our motion for 17 temporary release to allow him to attend a biometrics
18 appointment as a condition preceding or a condition with 19 this plea today.

20 THE COURT: Right.

21 And so, what -- talked to the attorneys about 22 this. What I explained to your attorney, Mr. Guevara, is 23 that I'm not entirely comfortable with that release
24 motion. I understand the importance of getting the 25 biometric information with ICE. The government has

1 indicated and I don't know -- it's your agent?

2 MR. SPARKS: He is, your Honor. He's in the
3 courtroom on the back -- back over there.

4 THE COURT: There he is. Okay.

5 MR. SPARKS: Agent Kemerling.

6 THE COURT: Agent Kemerling from ICE has
7 indicated that he will commit to making sure that that
8 biometric information gets taken. I don't think it's 9 going to be able to be done on October 4th as currently 10 set, but that he can commit to that.

11 Is that a fair statement?

12 AGENT KEMERLING: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: Okay. And so, I think what's going
14 to have to happen is that I'm going to have to deny that 15 motion, but with the understanding that the government
16 will make it happen at some point where it works in the 17 process. Because the marshals just can't do that and the 18 Court's not comfortable the release without some sort of 19 oversight.

20 MR. TOLAND: Is there a way -- can we get an 21 agreement on the date of -- like if we had sentencing on a
22 set day that an order signed that would say within
23 requisite amount of hours after that, or something, so
24 that we -- the timing of that is important for procedural
25 remedies that he still is maintaining preparation. So

1 that's the only way I think we could have -- have
2 reassurances that that could still work.

3 THE COURT: Let's see what Mr. Sparks says here.

4 MR. SPARKS: Judge, my understanding is that
5 Judge Yeakel sets the sentencing on a certain day, the 6 fingerprint -- the ASC fingerprint biometrics could be
7 taken within 72 hours. I don't think the agent's in a
8 position to guarantee 24 hours, but 72 hours seemed like
9 reasonable -- three days.

10 MR. TOLAND: I just -- that's fine. I think --

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MR. TOLAND: I think for purposes of having 13 something in writing that we can rely on and then, we can
14 take procedural steps --

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MR. TOLAND: -- so we (indiscernible) some time
17 on that, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Yeah. So what I think I could 19 say right now on the record is that the government has 20 said that they will commit to getting that done within 72
21 hours of the sentencing. So we have that on the record at 22 this point. So.

23 MR. TOLAND: And then, I could just file a
24 (indiscernible) --

25 THE COURT: No.

1 MR. TOLAND: I could file an order later assuming
2 (indiscernible) okay with that, and then, we get that
3 signed and then, we have that and we're more comfortable.

4 MR. SPARKS: I'd be willing to sign --

5 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Why don't you all
6 go chat about all that, make sure that all still works,
7 and then, I'll get these other three pleas going.

8 MR. SPARKS: Thank you, Judge.

9 THE COURT: Appreciate it.

10 All right. Amanda, if you would call the other
11 ones next.

12 THE CLERK: Case No. 1:18-CR-410, The United
13 States of America vs. Carlos Zamudio.

14 MR. MARSHALL: Mark Marshall for the United
15 States on all three cases.

16 MR. YOUNG: Jim Young for Carlos Zamudio.

17 THE COURT: Good morning.

18 THE CLERK: Case No. 1:19-CR-059, The United
19 States of America vs. Irwin Lewis Dukes.

20 MS. HERRING: Charlotte Herring for Mr. Dukes.

21 THE COURT: Good morning.

22 THE CLERK: Case No. 1:19-CR-094, The United
23 States of America vs. Hector Rodriguez Escobar.

24 MR. WANNAMAKER: Good morning, your Honor.

25 Dan Wannamaker on behalf of Mr. Escobar.

1 THE COURT: Good morning.

2 Gentlemen, each of you is here for a guilty plea.
3 I'm going to conduct all three of these pleas here at the 4 same time. We get our record of the proceedings from an
5 audio recording, so there's no way to see who's speaking.

6 So if you would, when I start asking questions
7 here in a moment, if you could always answer those 8 questions in the same order so that it will be clear who's 9 speaking. So, Mr. Zamudio, if you'd answer first, and 10 then, Mr. Dukes, and then, Mr. Rodriguez.

11 Mr. Dukes, and, Mr. Rodriguez, if you could just 12 make sure you wait for the person answering ahead of you
13 to finish speaking before you start to speak so there will 14 just be one voice speaking at a time on the recording.

15 If each of you could please raise your right hand
16 to be sworn at this time.

17 THE CLERK: Do you solemnly swear or affirm that 18 the testimony which you may give in the case before the 19 Court shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but 20 the truth, so help you God?

21 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes.

22 DEFENDANT DUKES: I do.

23 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Thank you.

25 Could each of you please state your full name?

1 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Carlos Alberto Zamudio.

2 DEFENDANT DUKES: Irvin Lewis Dukes, Jr.

3 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Hector Escboar

4 Rodriguez.

5 THE COURT: Now, as I said, you're each here for
6 a guilty plea. Before I take your actual plea, there's a
7 number of rights I need to go through and advise you of.
8 As I go through these with you, if there's any of these
9 rights that you have questions about or if you want me to 10 explain anything in more detail, that's fine. Don't 11 hesitate to ask questions if you have any.

12 In addition, if you need to speak with your 13 attorney during these proceedings, that's also fine. Just 14 let me know that you need to do that, we'll take a break
15 so that you and your attorney can speak privately.

16 Do you understand all of that?

17 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes.

18 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

19 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Now, the first right I need to cover
21 with each of you is that you each have the right to have 22 this proceeding today, this guilty plea, take place in 23 front of the district judge in your case. That's Judge
24 Pitman in all three cases. That is the district judge who 25 has your case on his docket. He would be the judge that

1 if you were going to go to trial on the case, would
2 preside over that trial. It's also if you plead guilty
3 today, he'll be the judge that will sentence you.

4 Now, although you've got the right to have Judge
5 Pitman hear your guilty plea, you can also agree, instead,
6 to allow a magistrate judge to hear your plea. You've
7 each signed a form agreeing to that.

8 Did you discuss that issue with your attorney
9 before you agreed to that?

10 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes.

11 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

12 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: And you understand you've got that
14 right to have Judge Pitman hear this plea?

15 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes.

16 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

17 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: And do you agree to allow me to hear
19 the plea, instead?

20 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes.

21 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

22 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Counsel, have each of you had a
24 sufficient amount of time to meet with your client and to 25 discuss their case with them?

1 MR. YOUNG: I have, your Honor.

2 MS. HERRING: Yes, your Honor.

3 MR. WANNAMAKER: Yes, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: And have you explored with your
5 client any defenses that he might have to the case against 6 him?

7 MR. YOUNG: Yes, sir.

8 MS. HERRING: Yes, your Honor.

9 MR. WANNAMAKER: I have, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Do you -- have you explained to your
11 client their right to a jury trial and the other rights
12 that go with can that?

13 MR. YOUNG: Yes, your Honor.

14 MS. HERRING: I have, your Honor.

15 MR. WANNAMAKER: Yes, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Do you believe your client has a
17 factual as well as a rational understanding of the 18 proceedings against him?

19 MR. YOUNG: I do, your Honor.

20 MS. HERRING: Yes, your Honor.

21 MR. WANNAMAKER: I do, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Do you have any doubts as to your
23 client's competence to make a plea today?

24 MR. YOUNG: No, sir.

25 MS. HERRING: No, your Honor.

1 MR. WANNAMAKER: None.

2 THE COURT: Gentlemen, have you -- any of you
3 ever suffered any injury, medical condition, or anything
4 else, that would prevent you from understanding today's
5 proceedings?

6 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: No, your Honor.

7 DEFENDANT DUKES: No, sir.

8 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: No, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: And are you taking any medications or 10 anything else today that would affect your judgment or 11 understanding?

12 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: No, sir.

13 DEFENDANT DUKES: No, sir.

14 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: No, sir.

15 THE COURT: Now, have each you had enough time to 16 meet with your attorney and to speak to your attorney
17 about your case?

18 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes.

19 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

20 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: And have you spoken to your attorney
22 about anything that you think it would be important for 23 him or her to know about you or about your case so that
24 they can do a good job representing you?

25 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes.

1 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

2 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: And are you satisfied with your
4 attorney's representation of you?

5 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

6 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

7 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: Now, I believe we have plea
9 agreements in two of the cases?

10 MR. MARSHALL: Yes, sir. Zamudio and Escobar.

11 THE COURT: And I guess there's a conditional
12 plea in Mr. Dukes' case.

13 MS. HERRING: Yes, your Honor.

14 MR. MARSHALL: Correct.

15 THE COURT: Okay. If you would just briefly
16 summarize the terms of those agreements in Mr. Zamudio's
17 case.

18 MR. MARSHALL: Mr. Zamudio, the defendant, is 19 going to enter a plea of guilty to a superseding
20 information that charges conspiracy to possess with intent
21 to distribute a mixture or substance that contains a
22 detectable amount of cocaine. The plea agreement in that 23 case contains the standard language in this district and 24 division, including a waiver of appeal. It does include a
25 recommendation by the defense and the government under a

1 Rule 11(c)(1)(B) to a 24-month term incarceration. Other
2 than that, it's a standard agreement.

3 THE COURT: Twenty-four months is not a maximum,
4 just a 24-month agreement?

5 MR. MARSHALL: It's a 24-month agreement. Is 6 that?

7 MR. YOUNG: Yes, sir. Our agreement was to not
8 more than 24 months is a max.

9 THE COURT: Right.

10 MR. YOUNG: Okay.

11 MR. MARSHALL: That's exactly correct. The 12 defendant and the United States agrees to not more than 24
13 months incarceration in this case.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 Mr. Zamudio, now, the full text of this is set
16 out in writing. It's been signed by you.

17 Did you read through this before you signed it?

18 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: And did you meet with your counsel
20 and go through it with him?

21 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: Do you feel like you understand the
23 agreement?

24 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: Do you agree to it?

1 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: If you could cover the same topic --

3 MR. MARSHALL: Mr. Dukes is pleading guilty --
4 entering conditional plea to the indictment. There is no
5 agreement other than that.

6 THE COURT: Correct.

7 MR. MARSHALL: It's conditional plea to the 8 indictment with a written factual basis --

9 THE COURT: It's conditional on taking an appeal
10 of the motion to suppress order?

11 MS. HERRING: That's correct, your Honor.

12 MR. MARSHALL: Correct. That is all in the 13 record and in writing.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Escboar --

15 MR. MARSHALL: Mr. Escboar is going to plead
16 guilty to a superseding information that charges a zero-20
17 count, charging him with possession with intent to 18 distribute the mixture or substance containing a
19 detectable amount of cocaine. He's waived appeal with 20 regard to this particular sentence. There is no agreement
21 as to sentencing in this case. And the plea agreement
22 contains a factual basis in support of that plea. That,
23 in summary, is the agreement in this case.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Escboar, again, the full text of 25 your agreement is set out in writing.

1 Did you either read that or have that translated
2 for you before you signed it?

3 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: And did you meet with Mr. Wannamaker
5 and go over it with him?

6 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: Do you understand your agreement?

8 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: And do you agree to it?

10 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Now, there's a couple of things, Mr.
12 Zamudio, and, Mr. Escobar, I need to cover about your plea
13 agreement. Each of your plea agreements contains a waiver
14 of appeal provision. By that clause, if the district
15 judge or Judge Pitman accepts your plea agreement, then
16 you'll be giving up your right to either file a direct 17 appeal or file a separate lawsuit, challenging either the 18 fact that you're found guilty of that offense or the 19 sentence that's imposed.

20 The only exception to that would be if you are 21 contending that either your sentence or your conviction
22 was the result of ineffective assistance by your attorney
23 or misconduct by the prosecutor, you've always got the 24 right to raise that issue. Other than that, though, if 25 the plea agreement's accepted, you will be giving up all

1 of your rights to challenge either your conviction or your
2 sentence.

3 Do you understand that?

4 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

5 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: I'm sorry.

7 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Thank you.

9 And again, is that something, that waiver of 10 appeal that you discussed with your attorney before you
11 agreed to the plea agreement?

12 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes.

13 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Now, Mr. Zamudio, in your case, as 15 well, there's an agreement that you have with the 16 government about sentencing. That's a binding agreement
17 between you and the government. Each of you is bound by 18 that, but importantly, it's not binding on Judge Pitman.

19 So while he'll certainly hear from the government
20 that they've agreed and that they believe the max -- the 21 appropriate sentence would be 24 months or less, he can
22 make his own decision about what he thinks the appropriate
23 sentence is. And if he were to decide that the sentence
24 should be longer than 24 months, that would not be a
25 reason that would allow you to withdraw from your plea of

1 guilty.

2 Do you understand that?

3 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: Now, in both cases, the plea
5 agreement, as a whole, is also something that the judge
6 will review and Judge Pitman could reject your entire plea
7 agreement. In the event he did that, he'd notify you of 8 that in open court, and then, you would have the right at 9 that time to withdraw from the guilty plea.

10 Do you understand that?

11 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes.

12 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Now, in, I believe, both 14 Mr. Zamudio and Mr. Escobar's cases, you're pleading to 15 superseding informations. An information is just a
16 written document that charges a crime that's been prepared
17 by the prosecutor. In both cases, the charges before that 18 have been what's called an indictment, which is also a
19 written document charging a crime.

20 The difference is that when there's an
21 indictment, that charge has been presented to a grand
22 jury, and the grand jury has determined that there's at 23 least probable cause to believe that that crime took place
24 and they've returned an indictment.

25 Now, the charge in both of the informations in

1 your cases are felonies; so under the U.S. Constitution,
2 you have the right to require the government to present
3 that charge to a grand jury first, before you have to make
4 a plea to it. That's something, though, that you can
5 waive. And you've both signed Waiver of Indictment forms
6 today.

7 Do you understand you've got that right to have
8 the charge presented to a grand jury?

9 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes.

10 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: And you agree to waive that right and 12 proceed by information today?

13 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes.

14 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Now, have each of you -- this
16 is for all three of you -- discussed with your attorney
17 the charge that you're here to make a plea to?

18 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes.

19 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

20 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: That charge, Mr. Zamudio, is 22 conspiracy to possess with the intent to distribute
23 cocaine, in violation of Title 21, Section 846.

24 Mr. Escobar, it's possession with the intent to 25 distribute cocaine, in violation of Title 21 of the U.S.

1 Code, Section 841.

2 The maximum possible punishment is the same for
3 those two offenses, and that is 20 years of imprisonment.
4 There's no mandatory minimum. The maximum supervised
5 release term would be three years. The maximum fine is $1
6 million. And there is a $100 special assessment, as well.

7 Do each of you understand the -- that charge and 8 what the maximum punishment allowed by statute is?

9 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

10 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Dukes, the charge in your case is 12 being in possession of a firearm after a felony
13 conviction, in violation of Title 18 of the U.S. Code,
14 Section 922(g)(1). The maximum sentence allowed by law
15 for that is 10 years of imprisonment. There's no
16 mandatory minimum. The supervised release maximum is 17 three years. The maximum fine allowed is $250,000. The 18 maximum -- or the guaranteed mandatory $100 special
19 assessment would be imposed. And then, there could be 20 also an order of forfeiture with regard to the firearm or 21 any accessories or ammunition.

22 Do you understand that charge and the maximum
23 punishment allowed?

24 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: Now, in all three of the cases, in

1 deciding what sentence to impose, Judge Pitman will
2 consider not only what the statute you're pleading guilty
3 to says, what your plea agreement says, but he'll also 4 look at the general federal sentencing statute and its
5 terms. That, statute, among other things, is what created
6 the sentencing guidelines.

7 Now, those guidelines are advisory, so that means
8 that Judge Pitman will go through the calculations under
9 those guidelines and from those calculations, arrive at a
10 range of punishment that's recommended, and he'll take 11 that recommended range and do a count in deciding what 12 your sentence should be.

13 But he'll also consider the general sentencing
14 statutes, factors that it sets out. Those are -- include:
15 the nature and the circumstances of this charge that 16 you're pleading to, your own individual history and 17 characteristics, how serious the crime was, promoting 18 respect for the law, providing just punishment, protecting
19 the public from crime, providing deterrence to crime,
20 providing you with any educational or vocational training
21 or medical treatment that you may need, providing 22 restitution to any victims, and then finally, he'll 23 consider the need to avoid unwarranted differences in the 24 sentences of people who were sentenced for the same sort
25 of conduct.

1 So while Judge Pitman will consider the guideline
2 range recommended, he'll also consider all those other
3 factors; and then, after he considers all of that, he has 4 the power to sentence you anywhere from the minimum to the 5 maximum that the statute you're pleading to allows.

6 As I mentioned before, Mr. Zamudio, and, Mr.
7 Escobar, your ability to appeal your sentence is limited
8 by your plea agreement.

9 Mr. Dukes, you don't have any limit on your right
10 to appeal your sentence, but to have a sentence reversed
11 on appeal, you have to show that it was an unreasonable
12 sentence.

13 Now, have each of you had an opportunity to speak
14 to your attorney about all of that sentencing law and how 15 that might impact your own sentence?

16 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

17 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

18 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: Do you have any questions that you'd 20 like to ask me today about sentencing before you make the 21 plea?

22 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: No, sir.

23 DEFENDANT DUKES: No, sir.

24 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: No, sir.

25 THE COURT: Now, you should each understand that

1 the sentence imposed in your case could be ordered to run
2 consecutive to or to be served after you finish serving
3 any other sentence for any other conduct.

4 So if you've got any prior convictions where you
5 haven't fully completed the sentence, if you're on parole,
6 for example, or probation, or if you've got another charge
7 pending that hasn't been sentenced yet, then the sentence
8 in this case could be ordered not to begin to run till you
9 finish serving the sentence in any other case.

10 Do you understand that?

11 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

12 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

13 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: And there is no parole under federal 15 law, so if you're sentenced to any imprisonment, that's 16 the amount of time you've got to serve, although you can
17 earn credit for good time while you're in custody.

18 Do you understand that?

19 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

20 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

21 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: Are you a U.S. citizen?

23 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

24 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

25 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: No, sir.

1 THE COURT: Okay. So, Mr. Escboar, you
2 understand that in addition to the punishment I've already
3 mentioned, one of the other things that would happen if
4 you plead guilty to this charge is that this is a
5 mandatory deportation charge so that after serving any
6 sentence, you would be removed from the United States.

7 Do you understand that?

8 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: Is there anything about what might
10 happen to your immigration status by pleading guilty today
11 that you have questions about that haven't already been 12 answered for you?

13 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: No, sir.

14 THE COURT: Now, all of the cases, as well, your 15 sentence will include a term of supervised release.
16 That's a period of supervision you have to complete after
17 any imprisonment. And while you're on supervision, there
18 will be terms and conditions you'll have to comply with 19 that will be set by Judge Pitman and then, supervised by 20 the probation office.

21 Mr. Escboar, those conditions will also include a
22 statement that if you're removed, then that becomes a
23 non-reporting term of supervision: but one of the 24 conditions will state that if you are removed, you're not
25 to return to the United States without permission, and

1 that if you do return, you do so legally and you report to
2 a probation officer immediately.

3 Each of you understand all of that about
4 supervised release?

5 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

6 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

7 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: Now, if you were to violate any of 9 your conditions of supervision, then that period of 10 supervision could be revoked, and then, you could be 11 sentenced to serve additional imprisonment, and you don't 12 receive credit toward any additional sentence for any of 13 the time you've already spent on supervised release before
14 a revocation happens.

15 Do you understand that?

16 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

17 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

18 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: Now, do each of you understand you've 20 got the right to plead not guilty to this charge?

21 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

22 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

23 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: If you made a plea of not guilty,
25 you'd be entitled then to have a jury trial. At every

1 stage of that trial, you're presumed innocent, and the
2 government has to prove your guilt to the jury beyond a
3 reasonable doubt. You'll never have to prove your own
4 innocence at a trial.

5 At trial, you have the right to cross-examine any 6 of the government's witnesses. You've got the right at 7 trial, as well, to present evidence on your side of the 8 case, including having the right to subpoena witnesses and 9 require them to come to court and testify. Now, although 10 your side of the case at a trial could include your own
11 testimony, importantly, you have the right at a trial not
12 to testify, and the government can't require that you
13 testify at trial.

14 So if you decided to go to trial and then, at 15 your trial to remain silent and not testify, then Judge
16 Pitman would instruct the jury that it could not use the 17 fact that you didn't testify in any way against you in 18 deciding rather or not you were guilty of the charge.

19 So, in addition, if you -- I'm sorry, losing my
20 train of thought here. I've gotten rusty being off-duty
21 for two months now. Did the same thing yesterday.

22 Now, if you plead guilt today, you're waiving
23 your right to that trial. And if Judge Pitman accepts
24 your plea agreement, there won't be a trial. He'll enter
25 a judgment of guilty, based on the plea, and then, he'll

1 sentence you after he considers the presentence report.
2 In addition, if you plead guilty, Judge Pitman could ask
3 you questions about the offense, and if you answer those 4 while you're under oath and in the presence of your
5 attorney and your answers weren't truthful, then you could
6 be prosecuted for either perjury or making false
7 statements.

8 Do you understand all of that?

9 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

10 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Marshall, if you could read the 12 one count in Mr. Zamudio's case.

13 MR. MARSHALL: United States Attorney charges
14 Count 1: Beginning in or about January 2017, continuing
15 until on or about December 18, 2018, in the Western
16 District of Texas and elsewhere, the defendant, Carlos
17 Alberto Zamudio, knowingly, intentionally and unlawfully
18 combined, conspired, confederated, and agreed together,
19 with others known and unknown, to possess with intent to 20 distribute a mixture or substance containing a detectable
21 amount of cocaine, a controlled substance, contrary to 22 federal law.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Zamudio, do you understand that
24 charge?

25 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: How do you wish to plead to that
2 charge, guilty or not guilty?

3 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Guilty.

4 THE COURT: If you could read the charge in Mr.
5 Dukes' case.

6 MR. MARSHALL: Grand jury charges Count 1: On or 7 about March 4, 2019, in Austin, Texas, in the Western
8 District of Texas, the defendant, Irvin Lewis Dukes, being
9 a person who had been convicted of the following felony
10 offense: Specifically, on April 20, 2004, Mr. Dukes was 11 convicted in the United States District Court for the 12 Western District of Texas on conspiracy and possession
13 with intent to distribute more than five kilos of cocaine,
14 and discharging a firearm in relation to a
15 drug-trafficking crime; thereafter, he was sentenced to 16 incarceration. He did knowingly and unlawfully possess a
17 firearm on March 4, 2019, and ammunition, all of which had 18 been moved in commerce and affecting commerce, in 19 violation of federal law.

20 THE COURT: And, Mr. Dukes, do you understand
21 that charge?

22 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: And how do you wish to plead to that
24 charge, guilty or not guilty?

25 DEFENDANT DUKES: Guilty.

1 THE COURT: Finally, Mr. Escboar's superseding
2 information.

3 MR. MARSHALL: United States Attorney charges:
4 Count 1, on April 8, 2019, at Austin, Texas, in the
5 Western District of Texas and elsewhere, the defendant,
6 Hector Rodriguez Escboar, knowingly, intentionally and
7 unlawfully possessed with intent to distribute a
8 controlled substance, which offense involved a mixture or 9 substance containing a detectable amount of cocaine,
10 Schedule II controlled substance in violation of federal 11 law.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Escboar, do you understand that
13 charge?

14 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: How do you wish to plead to that
16 charge, guilty or not guilty?

17 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Guilty.

18 THE COURT: Now, are each of you making your plea
19 of guilty freely and voluntarily?

20 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

21 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

22 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: And are you pleading guilty to the 24 charge against you because you are guilty and for no other
25 reason?

1 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

2 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

3 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: Has anyone threatened you or forced
5 you in any way to make you plead guilty?

6 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: No, sir.

7 DEFENDANT DUKES: No, sir.

8 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: No, sir.

9 THE COURT: And other than the plea agreements
10 that two of you have, has anyone promised you anything
11 that's caused you to plead guilty?

12 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: No, sir.

13 DEFENDANT DUKES: No, sir.

14 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: No, sir.

15 THE COURT: And I guess, the same thing with 16 conditional plea in your case. And again, other than 17 those agreements, has anyone made any promises to you
18 about what your sentence will be other than the plea
19 agreement?

20 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: No, sir.

21 THE COURT: Same question.

22 DEFENDANT DUKES: No, sir.

23 THE COURT: No promises about your sentence?

24 DEFENDANT DUKES: No, sir.

25 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: No, sir.

1 THE COURT: Now, in the plea agreements, Mr.
2 Zamudio, Mr. Escobar, there's a factual statement that's
3 set out there that the government contends are the facts
4 to support the plea. You've each signed the agreement
5 saying you accept that. Let me just confirm. You read
6 through or had translated for you the factual summary in 7 your plea agreement?

8 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

9 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

10 THE COURT: And did you discuss that summary with 11 your attorney, as well?

12 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

13 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: Is what is set out there accurate, as 15 far as what happened in your case and what you did?

16 DEFENDANT ZAMUDIO: Yes, sir.

17 DEFENDANT RODRIGUEZ ESCOBAR: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: Is there an agreed summary in?

19 MR. MARSHALL: Yes. We filed a written factual
20 basis in this case.

21 MS. HERRING: There is a factual basis filed and 22 I have reviewed that with Mr. Dukes. At this time,
23 pursuant to United States vs. Mitchell, he wishes to 24 remain silent on any -- specifically allegations related
25 to the supervised release violation, which will be taken

1 up at a later time; but he does admit all of the elements
2 of the offense of conviction, that he has a prior felony
3 conviction and possessed a firearm.

4 THE COURT: Is that a correct statement, Mr.
5 Dukes?

6 DEFENDANT DUKES: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Good.

8 Based on all of that, then I do find that in each
9 of these cases, the defendants understand their charges
10 against them, the potential penalty for those charges.
11 They each understand their right to have a trial on the 12 charges, the rights that go with that, and desire to waive
13 those rights and make pleas of guilty. Each of the 14 defendants is competent to make a guilty plea. They're 15 each satisfied with their attorney's representation. And 16 there is a factual basis for each of the pleas.

17 I'll recommend to Judge Pitman that your guilty
18 plea be accepted.

19 Your cases will now be referred to the probation
20 office. They'll prepare the presentence report, and 21 you'll receive a copy of that through your attorney. If 22 there are any objections that you all need to raise that 23 can't be worked out between you and your attorney, on the 24 one hand, government's counsel and the probation office,
25 on the other, then the district judge, Judge Pitman, will

1 resolve those disputes before he imposes a sentence.

2 Anything further the Court needs to address in
3 the cases at this time?

4 MR. MARSHALL: Not from the government.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Zamudio? Mr. Escboar?

6 MR. WANNAMAKER: Mr. Escboar is on bond.

7 THE COURT: Yeah. You've both been on conditions
8 of release at this point. The Pretrial Office is 9 recommending that you continue on those. I'll just direct
10 that you continue to comply with those conditions
11 following the rest of your case.

12 MR. WANNAMAKER: Your Honor, we anticipate
13 perhaps filing a motion to modify the travel restrictions
14 that he has. He's a -- drives a truck and it would 15 enlarge his delivery.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Yeah. And generally that will
17 go before whoever did the conditions of release initially.
18 I don't remember if that was me.

19 MR. WANNAMAKER: I think it was.

20 THE COURT: Judge Lane?

21 MR. WANNAMAKER: Judge Lane.

22 THE COURT: Okay. All right. No problem.

23 MR. WANNAMAKER: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: Anything else?

25 MR. MARSHALL: No, sir.

1 THE COURT: Y'all may be excused. Thank you.

2 MR. WANNAMAKER: Thank you, your Honor.
